A GOOD MATCH ASSURED

Needham and Johnson Are Both in Good Condition—What the Shooters Are Doing—Base Ball.

BUTTE, April 25.—There are only a few hours left in which to secure seats for the Needham-Johnson contest, and people who want to be in on the ground floor will do well to secure their seats early Wednesday afternoon, when the plan will again be open at 10 o'clock. A good many of the local sports have neglected to secure their seats until the last minute and are liable to have to take a back seat in the gallery if they put it off any longer. Both Needham and Johnson are in superb condition and everything points to a long and hard contest. The reduced prices have met with popular favor and the house will be packed to the doors, both upstairs and down.

Jim Bates of Missoula will second Johnson, and will bring over a big crowd of sports from the Garden City to witness the contest. Anaconda, Phillipsburg, Boulder and Helena will also send large delegations, and there is no doubt that the crowd will be a much larger one than that which witnessed the settlement of the Needham-Maher dispute.

On Friday morning a large number of Butte sports will start for Phillipsburg to take in the Hogan-Schultz contest, which comes off before the Flint Creek Athletic club that evening. This will be the greatest lightweight contest that has ever been seen in the Northwest, and the men are so evenly matched that there is absolutely no choice between them. The match will undoubtedly be a long and hard one, and one well worth watching.

Jack Dempsey, the "Nonpareil," has written that he will undertake to stop or beat "Shadow" Maher in 10 or 12 rounds for a suitable purse and side bet. The Coney Island club has offered a purse of $6,500 for a final contest between Dempsey and "Boston" Billy Smith, who recently defeated Williams in two rounds, but before going east the former would like to have a go at Maher, and it is probable that a match will be arranged between them on the basis as stated, to come off in Butte on an early date.

Rod McKenzie of Phillipsburg is also after Maher, and accepted the challenge of the latter to stop any middleweight in Montana. He will fight him for $250 a side before the Butte of Phillipsburg Athletic club, and has deposited a forfeit of $50 with the Anaconda office of the STANDARD as a guarantee that he means business. McKenzie weighs 150 pounds, and his forfeit will be left up for one week.

Among the Shooters.

John F. Cowan has accepted the challenge of Mose Manuel of Helena to shoot for the state gold medal for live birds shooting and the match will come off at the grounds of the Butte Rod and Gun club on Saturday afternoon, May 6. Cowan is now the real owner of the much coveted trophy, which has changed hands six or eight times, having held it for a year without challenge but as he was cast for a short time he has thrown the medal open for contest for six months longer in order that there may be no complaint from any source. There is no doubt that Mr. Cowan will hold the medal as long as he wants to, as he is generally conceded to be the best wing shot in the state.

The gold medal of the Butte Rod and Gun club changed hands again on Saturday when C. H. Smith wrested it from E. S. Paxson. The shoot was at 30 blue rocks out of which Smith secured 43 against Paxson's 32. Mr. Paxson had previously held the medal for three months without being challenged and had thus become its owner, but he decided to give Mr. Smith a chance to win it with the above result.

The grounds of the Rod and Gun club, which have been partially under water all winter, are being cleaned up and put in fine shape for the summer season. The electric trap, which throws the blue rocks up in the air through a simple pressure of a button, is being overhauled and everything put in a thorough state of repair, including the club's rooms under the base ball stand.

Base Ball Talk.

The soliciting committee, which was appointed to raise money for the support of a base ball team, has not started out on the war path yet and will not do anything until it is definitely known whether Anaconda is going to come into the league or not. The simple truth of the matter is that unless Anaconda is in it there will be no league this year, but it is believed that the advantage which is to be derived from a ball team just at this time and that it will come in out of the wet and help start the ball rolling. A joint committee from Butte and Phillipsburg will visit Anaconda either tomorrow or Thursday and endeavor to awaken the base ball interest there. They expect to meet with gratifying success.

Jack Huston and Joe Lohbeck, one of the batteries of last year's Helena team, reaching near Holt in Eastern Montana. "Lefty" Marr, who took care of left garden for the Butte team last season, and George Tebeau have succeeded in organizing a Colorado state league.

Pitcher McGinnis, who let Helena in the lurch last fall and is now with Chicago, was knocked out of the box by some of the Southern league clubs last week.

Con Lucid, the brunette twirler, is claimed by both Cincinnati and Louisville, and it is likely that there will be a lively dispute over him.

If Butte has a team this season it is altogether likely that Caplinger and Jack Monday of last year's Helena team will do the pitching, with "Old Reliable" Jack Brennan to do the catching for both of them.

A QUEER FATHER.

He Carries the "Mormon Justice" Theory to Extremes.

BUTTE, April 25.—The rather unusual spectacle of a father arresting his son, and that a mere boy, and taking him into court, occurred in Judge Turner's court this morning. A warrant for the arrest of the boy, who resides with his parents in Centerville, was issued a few days ago, but the boy could not be found. Martin B. Jorgum, a tailor, filed the complaint, as alleged that the boy, whose name is William J. Jorgum, had thrown a number of badly decayed eggs into his shop and ruined a quantity of his goods.

When the boy's father was informed of the fact, he said the youngster was too tough for him to manage, and expressed a wish that the law would take him in hand. He also volunteered to arrest the lad and procure him in court, and asked that the warrant be given to him. True to his promise, Mr. Jorgum appeared in court this morning with the boy and turned him over to Judge Turner, who arraigned him and set his trial for tomorrow. Not wishing to send the boy to jail, the judge asked his father to sign a bond for his appearance, but this Mr. Jorgum refused to do, and said he did not care whether the boy went to jail or not. The judge was more lenient than the father and released the boy on his promise to be in court to-morrow and stand trial.

NATHAN GETS OUT.

A Friend in Need Appears and Procures His Release.

BUTTE, April 25.—Thanks to the kindness of an old friend, N. Nathan, the man who was arrested yesterday for passing a counterfeit check, managed to squirm out of a bad predicament to-day. He was arraigned before Judge McMurphy this morning on a charge of cheating, which was substituted for the charge of forgery on which he was arrested. Prior to Nathan's arraignment, a pawnbroker named Friedman had an interview with Lawrence, the barber who cashed the forged check, and induced him to witness the complaint on condition that Nathan refund the money obtained and pay all costs. To this arrangement the prosecuting attorney consented, and when Nathan was arraigned he pleaded guilty and was remanded to jail to await sentence. This afternoon Friedman and Lawrence appeared in court, and the former paid the costs of prosecution and also gave Lawrence his money. The latter then made a formal request for a dismissal of the case, and Judge McMurphy issued an order for the prisoner's release. Friedman claims that he has known Nathan for a number of years, having become acquainted with him at St. Paul, where both were formerly in business.

ELKS AND BURNT CORK.

The Combination Promises to Be Irresistible.

BUTTE, April 25.—It will be a regular old fashioned minstrel show that the Elks will give next Tuesday night at the opera house, and it will be a dandy. While all the business will be new, the performance will bring back to the minds of old theatergoers the style of minstrelsy that was in vogue when that class of entertainment was at the height of its popularity, and when negro minstrels were just what their names indicated, minstrels plain and simple, and not the variety aggregations into which they have gradually been transformed during the last decade. All the jokes, songs, farces and burlesques will be new and original and nothing will be old, except the blackened faces of the performers. Every one of them is an amateur, and a member of the lodge.

The announcement that the sale of seats will begin to-morrow was premature and without authority. The date when the box sheet will be open will be announced later on.

THEY PLAYED SEVEN-UP

Both Were Drunk and One Was a Deputy Sheriff.

DID HE WALK OR RIDE DOWN

He Doesn't Know—More Marital Woes—An Abused Wife seeks Relief—A Chinaman and His Gun.

BUTTE, April 25.—A rather serious case with amusing details was on trial to-day in Judge Speer's court. Thomas Leen was charged with shooting at Edwin Edwards on the 25th of last August, with murderous intent. The jury selected to try the case was composed of L. Van Orton, Joseph Rosenthal, W. H. Young, C. J. Stevenson, S. L. Russell, R. B. Wallace, William Ebert, Ed. Potting, Charles Cameron, Jerry Roach, Morgan James and E. D. Hickey. According to the state's case Leen had no excuse for attempting to kill Edwards, who was at the time a deputy sheriff, but the defense, represented by C. R. Leonard, tried to prove that the shooting was provoked by Edwards. The state put Edwards on the stand as its first witness and the defense objected to permitting him to testify, on the ground that his name had not been endorsed on the information as one of the witnesses, as required by law. The objection was argued and overruled, and then Edwards gave his testimony. From his evidence and that of other witnesses it appeared that the two men had been playing a game of seven-up in Riley's saloon in Centerville, at about 3 o'clock in the morning. The deputy sheriff was drunk as well as Leen. Edwards accused Leen of cheating and the latter replied by slapping his mouth. Edwards then wanted to arrest Leen for assaulting an officer, but other men in the saloon threw him out. He returned shortly with a gun which he shoved into Leen's face and this time he succeeded in arresting him and started down hill to the county jail. On the way the two got into a fight and the deputy sheriff's gun played upon Leen's countenance, inflicting several bad cuts. Leen was finally landed in jail but Edwards did not remember whether he walked with his prisoner or came down on the cable car. He was so drunk at the time that he did not know whether he was on foot or horseback.

"I understand it," he testified, "I walked," and his answer made the jury laugh and the court smile. He also testified that it took him two or three hours to get to jail with his man. Others testified that he came down on the cable car. After Leen had been locked up several friends got him out on bail, and he got a gun somewhere and, someone said, went gunning for Edwards, but not finding him, he went to Riley's saloon again and fell asleep in a chair. Edwards soon walked in, armed to get out or fight, there would be trouble. He replied that he had two guns with him and could fight his way out, and then proceeded to awaken Leen, and the ball opened. Without much preliminary work Leen commenced firing but he was so drunk that he could not hit the drunken officer, and before any damage was done both were disarmed.

The trial will probably be concluded to-morrow.

Columbia in Court.

Mrs. Columbia Hodges got the worst of it in an encounter with her husband, John A. Hodges, and seeks revenge and freedom from the ties that bind, through the divorce court, and today commenced an action in Judge McHatton's court. She relates that she was married to the defendant in Butte in 1886, and accuses him of being guilty of extreme cruelty and habitual drunkenness. About a year ago he struck her with his fist and again yesterday, while intoxicated. She wants nothing but a plain divorce, no alimony, no property or maiden name. Lucy against Frank Williams, a default was entered and the matter referred to H. A. Woods to take testimony.

Other Court Matters.

The Forbis-Ayotte quarrel-placer case is still on trial in Judge McHatton's court.

The case of Stella Smith, for grand larceny, was continued for trial until to-morrow, in Judge Speer's court, and the case of James Stoddard, for practicing medicine without license, was indefinitely postponed.

Sing Lung, a Chinaman, was sent to jail from Walkerville for exhibiting a gun. Some kids were working him and he tried to run a bluff on them.

For Thursday Night.

BUTTE, April 25.—F. Sheridan, who will appear at Maguire's opera house Thursday, is the only one upon the stage that has traveled and performed in all countries of the globe that are habitable. He is now making a tour of the United States after an absence of several years.

Mr. Sheridan will be seen in his famous character of "Widow O'Brien" in that sterling and original farce comedy, "A Night on the Bristol." Mr. Sheridan is supported by an exceedingly large company of players, including artists of rare reputation from England, Australia and this country as well. Among them will be noticed Mlle. Blanche Siegrist, the famous Parisian vocalist and danseuse; Miss Cecile Whiteford, the queen of song; Miss Fannie Lillard, operatic prima donna; Messrs. Marion and Post, eccentric and grotesque dancers; the Yum-Ki-Poo troupe of Japanese dancers; also numerous specialties by members of this large and talented company.

JUMPED THEIR TAXES.

Enterprising Merchants Who Have Found a Way to Beat the County.

BUTTE, April 25.—County Assessor Bond today encountered what he considers a shortcoming in the revenue law. A short time ago he assessed a large stock of personal property belonging to a firm that broke up in business a few days ago. Every other creditor of the firm filed attachments on the property, but the taxes were not yet due in a legal sense, and the county was left to hold the sack. The assessor had an idea that the county, too, should be protected in some way, but he learned that it could not be. The previous assessor had a similar experience with a large firm of merchants, whose stock was assessed at $10,000 or $15,000. They did business in Butte for six months or more, and then sold their stock and left for Helena, and the county could collect no taxes.

Seeking Trouble.

BUTTE, April 25.—The motor man who tried to run through the Sons of St. George parade yesterday, and narrowly escaped being mobbed, has been laid off. To-day he complained to the sheriff that he had been threatened, and pretended to be afraid of personal violence. He wants some one to give him permission to carry a gun, but he found no one who had authority to grant such a license.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Relative to Immigration from European Points.

Persons intending to send to Europe for their friends or members of their families will do well to call on us at once and arrange for their tickets, as we can save them time and money.

It appears evident that the present congress will pass some very stringent measures to restrict immigration, and possibly emigration may be entirely prohibited for one year longer. Even if emigration is not directly prohibited, such rules and regulations may be adopted and enforced as will make it practically impossible for prepaid passengers to land, and husbands and fathers already located in this country may be unable to send for their wives and children unless they can furnish heavy money guarantee. Tickets should be arranged for at once or it may be too late to bring your friends to this country for at least a year, and possibly longer.
